

UNIVERSITA' DEGLI STUDI MEDITERRANEA DI REGGIO CALABRIA
Dipartimento di Giurisprudenza ed Economia
Comparto didattica

A) GENERAL INFORMATION:

- Degree Course: Law
- Course name: Comparative Public Law
- Professor: Antonino Spadaio and Carmela Salazar
- Other Professors: = = = = =
- Scientific disciplinary sector: IUS/08
- University credits – ECTS 7
- Teaching hours: 42
- Course year: Third year
- Semester/year: Second semester

B) SPECIFIC INFORMATION:

- Synthetic description of the course:
Comparative Public Law refers to micro- and macro-comparison, historical inquiry on the birth and development of great legal systems, analysis of constitutional and institutional identity of legal systems.
- Course entry requirements:
Constitutional Law as preliminary exam.
- Expected learning results:
General knowledge of methodology and purposes of legal comparison and of the main forms of State and Government.
- Course programme:
1. Contemporary legal systems.- 2. Methodology of Comparative public law.- 3. Comparative law, international law, European Law .- 4. Brief remarks on Islamic, Indian anche Chinese Law.- 5. State and Constitution. 6. Anglo-American Law and European Public Law (Ius publicum europaeum).- 9. Compared sources of law.- 10. Electoral systems. - 11. Forms of Government. - 12. Comparative constitutional adjudication. - 13. Federal and regional government. - 14. Popular democracy tools. - 15. Democratization and constitutional processes of Latin America, Asian and African Countries.
- Verification system of learning results:
Oral examination.
- Description of verification system of learning results:
Students tutorial and preliminary colloquia.
- Suggested texts:
<http://www.unircost.altervista.org/>